'TIS MARY'S MONTH OF MAY: Let each of us do something for Mary, our Mother, during this month dedicated in her honour.

We could take up our Rosary afresh, really engage with the 20 different Mysteries of the life of Jesus and Mary, or we could say an extra Rosary (even just a decade, focusing on just one Mystery).

We could join the Parish Rosary Group, after the daily 12.15pm Mass, or say the Rosary at home with our Family, or start a Rosary Group at our work or school, or among our local friends. Let us know your initiatives, so that they can be listed overleaf and encourage others to join you in doing something for Our Lady.

VOCATIONS for the BOURNEMOUTH ORATORY are welcome from this September - once we're back in our renovated House, and have rooms ready for those whom God may send to be formed in the Oratorian life of St Philip Neri. Pick up a leaflet at the back of our Church to read about St Philip and the beginnings of the Oratory in 16th century Rome, and how Cardinal John Henry Newman (to be canonized this year) brought the Oratory to England.

In addition to the Oratories founded by Newman, and Fr Faber, respectively at Birmingham and London, the Oxford Oratory (realising Newman's dream) was established in 1993, and there are now four other Oratories in Formation - at Manchester, York, Cardiff and Bournemouth - attracting many by the beauty of liturgy and music, clear teaching of the Catholic Faith, formation in prayer, and the charity and joy for which St Philip was renown.

The Bournemouth Oratory was proposed by Bishop Philip in 2015 to Fr Peter and Fr David Hutton (Fr Dominic was involved from an early stage), and begun on 31st May 2017, Feast of the Visitation of Our Lady. Please pray for vocations to the Bournemouth Oratory.

Fathers and Brothers of the Oratory are not 'Religious' (bound by vows) but live together 'in the bond of charity', adapting to local needs, devoted to prayer (as the name Oratory implies), reverent celebration of the Sacraments, and daily familiar preaching of the Word of God.

You can find out more by visiting our website and clicking on "Vocations", follow links to other Oratories around the world, and view the Brisbane (Australian) Oratorian Novices at the Oratory Seminary in Toronto (Canada) on their light-hearted youtube video.
