ORATORIAN NEWS

The good news this week was the announcement that Blessed John Newman, our Cardinal, is to be canonised by the Holy Father in Rome on the 13th October. The Birmingham Oratory, which Newman founded, and which has been the principal promoter of the Cause, has set up a website, giving much useful information about the event and our new Oratorian Saint. Visit it at: www.newmancanonisation.com There will, of course, be celebrations in many places in the United Kingdom, and Bishop Philip has already asked to come to preside at a Mass of Thanksgiving in our church on Friday 25th October. Details of this will follow, and the Canonisation news is, of course, on our own website's home page at www.bournemouthoratory.org.uk

Other news of the Oratory in England is given in the statement below, which is being published this weekend in the Newsletters of the Oxford Oratory, and the Oratories in Formation here and at York:

The Procurator of the Oratory, Fr Michele Nicolis, has recently seen the Bishop of Middlesbrough, and the formal process for the independence of the York Oratory has now begun. Our Apostolic Delegate, Fr Marco Guillen, has therefore asked for the following moves to take place: Fr Daniel to transfer from Oxford to York to be part of the new foundation, and Fr Dominic to divide his time between Oxford and Bournemouth, while continuing to oversee the Bournemouth Oratory in Formation.

This will mean that Fr Dominic (who is away this weekend for an Ordination at the York Oratory) will not be with us all the time, but will spend at least a week a month in Bournemouth, assisting the Community in its journey of formation as an Oratory. We have just been blessed with the priestly ordination of Fr Andrew on June 8th (who is now away on holiday), and Brother Francisco is expecting to start his priestly studies at Blackfriars in Oxford this autumn. Our Oratory House should be soon ready for occupation after its refurbishment and essential works and, from this October, we hope that those interested in the Philippine Vocation will come to join us. Please do keep us in your prayers and continue to support the growth of the Oratory and its mission here at the Sacred Heart, in the heart of Bournemouth.

St Philip Neri's Maxims: If you wish to come where I am going, that is, to glory, you must come this road, that is, through thorns.
