If you missed last week's ORATORIAN NEWS . . .

The good news was announced last week that Blessed John Newman, our Cardinal, is to be canonised by the Holy Father in Rome on the 13th October. The Birmingham Oratory, which Newman founded, and which has been the principal promoter of the Cause, has set up a website, giving much useful information about the event and our new Oratorian Saint. Visit it at: www.newmancanonisation.com There will, of course, be celebrations in many places in the United Kingdom, and Bishop Philip has already asked to come to preside at a Mass of Thanksgiving in our church on Friday 25th October. Details of this will follow, and the Canonisation news is, of course, on our own website's home page at www.bournemouthoratory.org.uk

Other news of the Oratory in England is given in the statement below, which was published last weekend in the Newsletters of the Oxford Oratory, and the Oratories in Formation here and at York:

The Procurator of the Oratory, Fr Michele Nicolis, has recently seen the Bishop of Middlesbrough, and the formal process for the independence of the York Oratory has now begun. Our Apostolic Delegate, Fr Marco Guillen, has therefore asked for the following moves to take place: Fr Daniel to transfer from Oxford to York to be part of the new foundation, and Fr Dominic to divide his time between Oxford and Bournemouth, while continuing to oversee the Bournemouth Oratory in Formation.

This will mean that Fr Dominic will not be with us all the time, but will spend at least a week a month in Bournemouth, assisting the Community in its journey of formation as an Oratory. We have just been blessed with the priestly ordination of Fr Andrew on June 8th, and Brother Francisco is expecting to start his priestly studies at Blackfriars (mid-week) in Oxford this autumn. Our Oratory House should be soon ready for occupation after its refurbishment and essential works and, from this October, we hope that those interested in the Oratorian Vocation will come to join us. Please keep us in your prayers, pray for vocations to our life of St Philip, and continue to support the growth of the Oratory and its mission here at the Sacred Heart, in the heart of Bournemouth.

Parishioners: Advertise your Catholic business here to reach our 350 weekly Bulletins, 250 Email subscribers, & 2,000 daily visitors to the Oratory website. T. 01202 411140.
