This week: Joan Brown, Wellbeing (Our Lady), All our ORATE Donors (St Joseph).

Thank you for being “One in a Thousand”

The ORATE Fund currently stands at £130,000, of which £60k is “One in a Thousand” donations (plus Ebay jewellery sales, and the carnival etc). Concerts and movie nights have netted £3,500; weekday collections top £10k. Gift Aid recovered tax totalled £52k, and we await an additional £1,500 Gift Aid for the past 3 months. This is a fantastic start! Thank you to everyone who has led the way. We pray that many more will follow, especially at this Friday’s Mass with our Bishop in thanksgiving for the Canonisation of our Oratorian Cardinal. Saint John Henry Newman, pray for us.

The ORATE Fund-raising brochure, published to coincide with last Sunday’s Canonisation of our Oratorian Cardinal, St John Henry Newman, is available on the dedicated table at the back of Church. Please help yourself to a few copies to give to your family and friends to encourage them to be ‘One in a Thousand’ (or to donate to “One in a Thousand” items) as we continue to pray for donations to roll in. Immense gratitude to those who’ve already given their ORATE donation.

ORATORIAN COMMUNITY NEWS

THE ORATORY HOUSE was formerly handed over on Friday (18 Oct) so we move back in during this fortnight, after an exile of 14 months. Once we’re settled (by Advent, we hope) Oratory life can recommence, and things begin to take off for the Parish. Thank you for your patience and many kindnesses during this very unsettling and prolonged period.

FR DOMINIC will be here from Monday for his monthly week in residence, and for Bishop Philip’s visit to Bless our House, and offer Friday’s Diocesan Mass of Thanksgiving for our Cardinal’s Canonisation.

FR ANDREW is greatly engaged in the University Chaplaincy Catholic Society at the start of a new academic year. Welcome to all new students!

BR FRANCISCO is back each weekend from his Oxford studies for the Priesthood. And Anthony Lummis has arrived as an Aspirant Lay Brother.
