PLEASE BRING FOOD at the Reception after Brother Andrew's Ordination on Saturday week. Melody Hogan is coordinating this and asks that food and desserts should all be cold, served from your own serving dish, and all suitable as finger food (ie. NO knives, forks or spoons). Please 'phone her by Tuesday on 07811 687 876 to let her know what you can provide, and then deliver your food to the Hall on Friday, or before 10am on Saturday 8th.

THANK YOU to everyone who contributed to this Saturday's Feast of St Philip, Founder of the Oratory, especially the Brothers of the Little Oratory who read and served at the Solemn Mass, to Andrew Santos and Richard Childress and all who sang, and to everyone who provided food for the parish party. Thank you!

JEWELLERY in any condition and good quality bric-a-brac are needed. A few years ago we raised a lot of money at the Winton Carnival selling jewellery donated by Parishioners to support our Shine Appeal. We ask your help again as part of the massive Redevelopment fund-raising the Parish is about to undertake. Donations of jewellery in any condition will be greatly appreciated. We have a Catholic jeweller who will give us good prices for the most valuable items, and the remainder we aim to sell at next month's Carnival and other future events. Items can be left at the Parish Office. If you could help on the day please give your contact details to Sharon in the Office, or to Alison or Mike Davis.

ORATORY MONTHLY CONCERTS: Many thanks to our own Hannah Scott and Peter Murdock-Saint for last week's delightful flute and organ recital which raised the splendid sum of £712.45 for the Oratory Redevelopment Fund. Next month's concert is on Thursday 20 June. Details are in next week's Monthly Newsletter.

THE GOD WHO SPEAKS is the title of the 2020 Year of the Bible about which Bishop Philip writes in his Pastoral Letter to us today.
