JANUARY 2019 ~ Monthly Newsletter

Dear Friends,

Christmastide traditionally continues for the 40 days until Our Lord's Presentation in the Temple (Candlemas) on 2nd February (while the modern Christmas Season is foreshortened at the Sunday after Epiphany (Baptism of the Lord) when green is the liturgical colour for the Sundays after Epiphany - until we reach the purple of Lent.

The Christmas Cribs remain in Rome, and throughout the world, until 2nd February, as we continue to adore with the Magi (Wise Men) who brought their gifts to the Newborn Child and knelt to "do Him homage", acknowledging Him as their Lord, their King, and their God.

We now have the opportunity to do the same, not only at the Crib, but as we receive Jesus, our King and our God, and "do Him homage" in the even more reverential act of Holy Communion. The choice to kneel or stand is left to the individual (especially for age or infirmity).

They knelt to do Him homage.

DO SOMETHING NEW for the NEW YEAR: It's not too late to make a New Year resolution (any time during January) ... Have you thought about doing something new for your Parish Family? Join our jolly team of Bell ringers to call people to Mass and announce special occasions. We meet on Mondays (just after the ringing of the 6pm Angelus). Training is given: We have parishioners from nine years old to senior citizens. Speak to Kim Matthews, our Tower Captain.

Our Schola Cantorum sings Gregorian Chant, Polyphony and motets etc at our 10.30am Sunday Solemn Mass, and practice on Mondays at 7.30pm in the Organ Gallery (access via the spiral staircase in the Richmond Hill porch). Fr Dominic (Prefect of Music) or Andrew Santos (Organist) will be delighted to welcome you - so long as you can sing in tune! You don't even need to be able to read music, and the ancient square notes of Gregorian chant are so easy once they're explained.

Read at Mass: The daily 12.15pm Mass needs Readers (as it shouldn't ordinarily be left to the Altar Server). Some of the weekend Masses also need a few additional Readers on the monthly rota. Training is arranged. Give your contact details to Fr Peter or - as with any of the above roles - via the Parish Office.

You could also offer to help Church Cleaners, Flower Arrangers, Sacristy helpers, Collection Counters etc. Thank you to everyone who's already involved in our wonderful Parish, and those who might start - this year.
